

Industrial Visit organized in 14/03/2018

As a part of academic activity for First Year Engineering under graduate course under the University of Pune, first year engineering students are required to undertake industrial visit for completion of BME course term work. The visit is schedule on 14th March 2018, for the place 'Sugar factory, Daund, Maharashtra. The students visiting the above industries are 123 in number along with the 10 faculty member from the department of first year engineering.

