Guidelines for the APCOER - Foreign Language Club (APCOER-FLC)

APCOER - FLC – Vision

To empower APCOER Pune engineering students with foreign language fluency, enriching their global perspectives and professional skills.

Objective

- To enhance language proficiency among APCOER Pune engineering students to enable effective global communication.
- To prepare students for international collaboration and career opportunities by equipping them with strong language skills.
- Promote cultural empathy and global awareness through in-depth foreign language instruction and immersive learning experiences.

Strategies

- To organize language clubs and conversation groups for regular practice and peer learning.
- To invite guest speakers and experts for workshops and seminars on foreign languages and cultures.

APCOER - FLC shall evolve a mechanism and procedures for

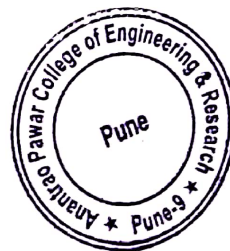

Language Clubs and Conversation Groups:

- Use language apps and online platforms for virtual conversations.
- Enhance regular language practice and peer interaction.
- Promote a collaborative learning environment.
- Improve fluency and confidence through consistent use of the language.

Guest Speakers and Workshops:

- Collaborate with academy or institutions and embassies to invite native speakers and experts.
- Organize workshops and seminars on foreign languages.
- Provide insights and knowledge from native speakers experts.
- Motivate and inspire students through interactive and engaging sessions.

Benefits: Benefits include enhanced language fluency, increased cultural appreciation, real-world language application, improved student engagement, collaborative learning, and inspiration from experts, all leading to well-rounded foreign language proficiency and global awareness.
