Annual Gender Sensitization Action Plan

Anantrao Pawar College of Engineering and Research, Pune has a primary concern to develop the professionals both men and women, having basic and technical competencies so that they can face industry, society and the global challenges. The institute takes up regular awareness programmes on Gender Sensitisation and Gender Equity through seminars, workshops and the activities in which students, teachers and all other support staff actively participate. The field action programmes are often undertaken in collaboration with the NSS unit of the College, with the objective to create a general awareness regarding gender issues among male and female alike, in pursuing a gender-just society.
