Marathi bhasa gaurava dina Report

Akhil Bharatiya Maratha Shikshan Parishad's Anantrao Pawar College of Engineering and Research Parvati Pune College Savitribai Phule Pune University according to Circular No. 2021-22 / 208, February 27 is the celebrated as Marathi language pride day on birth occasion of poet V. V. Shirwadkar or Kusumagraj's. The program was inaugurated by placing a wreath on the image of the senior poet Kusumagraj, winner of the Jnanpith Award. On the occasion of this Marathi Language Day Dr. Sagar Latke-Patil Professor Kanya College Miraj District Sangli organized an online lecture on competitive examination and Marathi. Speaking on this occasion, the language should be strong and progressive. Culture depends on language. Language is related to social actions and signals. While acquiring knowledge of English, you should not forget Marathi. The importance of Marathi language in various competitive exams, the nature of questions asked in these exams, how to write the answers, what should be comprehension ability, types of words, grammar, etc. In order to promote the development and spread of Marathi language, various competitions such as online quizzes based on Marathi language, Marathi signature campaign were organized for students on behalf of Student Development Board and Library Department. 248 students participated in this competition. Librarian Prof. Tanaji Mali has made available quality books in various fields in PDF format through digital library to create interest in reading books in Marathi language among the students. By displaying various reasons in the newspaper, the audience was made aware of the ways in which the Marathi language could attain elite status. Prof. Ganesh Kondalkar, Officer of Vidyarthi Vikas Mandal, told more information about the origin of Marathi language in ancient times, its development and the use and importance of Marathi language in daily life. Student officer Prof. Ganesh Kondalkar, all heads of departments, teachers and other staff were present for Madara. The program was planned by Prof. Ganesh Kodhalkar and Prof. Tanaji Mali. This ceremony was held in the background of the corona outbreak by running away from the rules of motion stemming.
