

Department of First Year Engineering

Program Education Objectives {PEO}:

1. To provide students with strong foundation in all the first year subjects.
2. To provide a leadership role for the College in educational research and in various fields of life.
3. To develop professional and ethical attitude and good communication skills among students.
4. To develop social awareness among students.

HOD

Principal

