Detailing report of Event:

The technological revolution, and that sense of ever-quickenning change, began much earlier than the 18th century and has continued all the way to the present day. Perhaps what was most unique about the Industrial Revolution was its merger of technology with industry. Key inventions and innovations served to shape virtually every existing sector of human activity along industrial lines, while also creating many new industries. The event was the approach to reach out the students to realize their thought process towards cutting edge technological revolution Prof. Manoj Mulik, Hed Comp. Engg. Dept. interact with students and shared his thoughts with participants. In the essays, students elaborates the technological revolution from their point of view. The refreshment was arranged for the students at the end of the program. The event was hosted by the Prof. S.V. Raut, College Cultural Coordinator.

Participant: Students of all departments.

Detailing report of Event:

Poster competitions raise awareness of issues and participation programs. Posters provide visual, colorful, simple ways to communicate community issues and events and are suitable for display in community spaces. The Poster Art Contest encourages students to engage in conversation with teachers and pastors on the essential question of the value of Life and express their beliefs through art. In the event, students portray their imaginations on the piece of paper adding the values through the layouts and colors about saving nature and try to percolate the awareness about the importance of nature over the humans casual approach towards nature. During the program the students brought their own essentials art equipment's for the completion of the masterpiece they want to show case.

Dr.S.B.Thakare, Principal, A.P.C.O.E.&R delivers the enthusiastic session to aware the students about the conservation of nature and humans' role to maintain the diversity of nature. Meanwhile in the event Prof. Prajakta Kachare interacts with students and help them to elaborate their views. . For the occasion other staff members too gave their appearance to cheer up the students. The event was hosted by Prof. Sandeep V. Raut, (College Cultural Coordinator).

EVENT REPORT

Name of Event: GARBHA Celebration

Date of Event: 10/10/2019

Department: Information Technology Department. Time of event: 02:00 AM – 04:00 PM

Event Coordinator: Prof. Sandeep V. Raut & Prof. Dhanashree Joshi

Participant: Students of all departments.

Detailing report of Event:

Garba is a dance form native to the west Indian state of Gujarat, performed in October to honour the Hindu Deity of Divinity, Goddess Durga. Though Garba is mainly an event for Navaratri celebrations, this joyful folk dance is performed on almost every special occasion in Gujarat as a sacred tradition. Celebrating GARBHA at A.B.M.S.P.s Anantrao Pawar College of Engineering and Research was a remarkable experience. The event aimed to encourage the cultural and holistic development of students, while also promoting the diversity that is inherent in Indian culture.

Students, faculty members, and staff members were present at the event, which was filled with enthusiasm and joy. The decorations in the premises were awe-inspiring, with vibrant colors and traditional motifs. The Garbha dance costumes were the highlight of the event. Participants from different departments participated in the event, and their dance moves were amazing and mesmerizing. The rhythm of the dhol and the traditional songs added more enthusiasm to the dance.

Prof. Dhanashree Joshi from Information Technology Department shares the remarkable experiences to interact with students and highlight the importance of holistic development of the students and its resemblance in Indian culture. Meanwhile in the event Prof. Sandeep V. Raut ensures the smooth conduct of the event in college premises. The event was hosted by Mr. Umesh Patil, Student representative of college.

EVENT REPORT

Name of Event: Photography Exhibition/ Competition

Date of Event: 22/10/2019

Department:-Information Technology Department.

Time of event: 02:00 AM – 04:00 PM

Event Coordinator: Prof. Sandeep V. Raut & Prof. Shital Patage

Participant: Students of all departments.

Detailing report of Event:

Students overall development is the most important aspect that the teaching institute have huge concern now a days. To fulfill such aspects the Photography Exhibition was in college, where students can show case their handfull skills on camera (DSLR/Mobile) as well as choosing the frame for photograph. Students also explain the features line behind the photograph that they have captured. The stories behind the photograph is act as a bridge between the captured frame and the reality of life/environment around the photograph.

Students as well as, faculty members were present at the event, which was filled with enthusiasm and joy. Prof. Shital Patage, Civil Engineering Department sharesher skill and camera tricks with students to enhance the depth of camera angles. Meanwhile Prof. S.V. Raut give the demonstration on the effect of shadows and lights in camera lenses and shared the words about use of different lenses in wild life photography. The event was hosted by Mr. Shantanu Gawande, student and self-entrepreneur in DSLR from college.

Brief Description of Event:

The Dance Event of Anantrao Pawar College of Engineering and Research was a much-awaited event for the students , organized by the Mechanical Department.

The event was a mix of different dance forms. Students got a chance to experience different cultures by participating in cultural programs, which showcased traditional dances, music, and art forms. The event provided a great opportunity for students to interact with each other and celebrate their diversity.

Dance was divided in two Categories

- 1.Group Dance
- 2.Solo Dance
