conducted during the semester. Some instructions were also given to the parents regarding the college uniform, payment of fees, minimum attendance required and admission process. It was also told to the parents that they should call the mentor of their ward at least once a week. Later Breakfast and high tea was distributed to parents. Parent's feedback taken for the event conducted.

A detailed review of the feedback is as follows.

1. Programs on personality development and communication skills should be conducted along with the academics.
2. The training placement department should try to place maximum students possible.
3. Given positive feedback for our facilities namely classroom, laboratory, canteen and other campus facilities also for teaching and non – teaching staff.

In all it was strong effort to bridge the communication gap between parents and teachers
